FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

David Sedaris to return to Houston once again, presented by Society for the Performing Arts

HOUSTON (9/22/2016) – A favorite of Houston audiences, David Sedaris will once again return to help celebrate 50 years of SPA on October 22nd at 8 p.m. in the Brown Theater at Wortham Theater Center, presented by Society for the Performing Arts.

With multiple bestsellers, David Sedaris is beloved by audiences for his bizarre, candid takes on real life. On stage, Sedaris is as captivating, hilarious, and moving as he is on the page. Famous for his sarcastic take on Christmas traditions in “The Santaland Diaries,” Sedaris is a prolific writer who takes his new, never-before-heard work on the road with him to try out on audiences across the world.

This performance is sponsored by Reliant, United Airlines, HEB, Phillips 66, and CB&I, and is presented by Society for the Performing Arts.

Tickets can be purchased online at www.spahouston.org, by phone at 713-227-4772 or at the courtyard level ticket office at Jones Hall located at 615 Louisiana St. Hours of operation: 9 a.m.–5 p.m. Monday–Friday. For groups of 15 or more call 713-632-8113. Prices are subject to change.

About Society for the Performing Arts

Founded in 1966, Society for the Performing Arts (SPA) is the largest independent non-profit presenting organization in the Southwest. Since its inception, SPA has sponsored more than 1,000 performances of the world’s finest music, dance and theater events, in adherence to the belief that the arts are fundamental to the overall enrichment and quality of life within the community. In addition to presenting artists, SPA seeks to provide a variety of learning experiences for adults and children through master classes, lectures and special student performances, as well as build relationships between the performing arts and other interests within the greater Houston area and throughout the state of Texas.
